PRACTICE

Circle or highlight the correct choices:

1. Everyone knows the story of Cinderella, who/whom lived with her evil stepsisters.
2. Every day, they told her that they were the only ones who/whom her father truly loved.
3. When they heard the prince was throwing a formal ball to find the woman who/whom he would marry, they told Cinderella.
4. Who/Whom could have predicted that Cinderella had a fairy godmother to assist her?
5. Though Cinderella, who/whom owned only tattered rags, had nothing to wear to the ball, her fairy godmother transformed her into an elegantly dressed beauty.
6. Overwhelmed by Cinderella's beauty, the prince fell in love, though he had no idea who/whom she was.
7. Cinderella, who/whom ran from the castle at the strike of midnight, lost her glass slipper as she fled.
8. "Who's/Whose glass slipper is this?" the prince demanded, but no one knew, so he instructed his henchmen to scour the land to find the shoe's owner.
9. "Whoever/Whomever this shoe fits will be my bride," the prince declared.
10. Soon the prince found Cinderella, who's/whose tiny feet were the only ones that fit in the delicate footwear, and the two lived happily ever after.
